

Name:

H.R:

Date:

Scenario 1:
Your parents want to bring cupcakes into your homeroom for your birthday. They don't know where your classroom is when they get to Healy. If they can't find you, you don't get the cupcakes! Help them find their way by delivering special directions to them.

Graphic Source Type:

Scenario 2:
•A new student in your class has never used a laptop. Please help explain the different parts of the laptop and how it works

Graphic Source Type:

Scenario 3:
You are interested in finding out where students are in their number of books read for the school year. The teacher wants to know the fraction/percent of students that have read 0-5 books, 6-10 books, 11-15 books, and 15 or more books.

Graphic Source Type:

Scenario 4:
I want each student in your team to vote on the next class movie they will watch. The teacher wants to know WHICH person voted for WHICH movie. The choices are Moana, Frozen, Tangled, or Finding Dory.

Graphic Source Type:

Scenario 5:
I want to know what type of pizza your team want for the class party. Give me details about how many students in your team want cheese, pepperoni, and sausage.

Graphic Source Type:

Scenario 6:
You are helping plan a school dance for Healy your job is to brainstorm all of the things you need to buy to make it a successful event. You need to bring ALL of your great ideas to your teacher so each item or service can be booked or bought.

Graphic Source Type:

Name:

H.R:

Date: