

Sixth Grade Boy Is a HERO!!!

On Tuesday, Sam Parks, a sixth grade student at Sunny View Public School, was riding his bike home from school without a care in the world when he became the hero of the day. Mrs. Linwood's tabby cat Falco was stranded at the top of her giant fence. The cat was meowing and screaming like an injured lion. Sam could not ignore its screams and without a thought for himself, Sam scaled the fence in one leap and carried the cat to safety. Mrs. Linwood thankfully hugged Sam as the cat gazed up at Sam in awe and appreciation. "That boy is a true hero," said Mrs. Linwood. "Without his assistance, my Falco would have been stuck on that fence until next winter."
